Overview

The institute includes lectures, discussion, and guided practice in role-plays. Active and practical in focus, the sessions emphasize hands-on skills training and real-life role-plays based on the kinds of conflicts faced by participants. A more detailed description of the sessions is available upon request.

Covid-19 Travel Concerns

Given information available at the time of planning for the Mediation Skills Training Institute and anticipating a potential "second wave," LMPC has decided to hold the event online, rather than ask participants to travel to participate in person, as has been the norm in the past.

Zoom Format

The Mediation Skills Training Institute will be held online through Zoom video conferencing. Zoom offers opportunity for participant interaction in small and large groups, including role-play exercises. LMPC utilized Zoom for the 2020 Spring session of several training events and feedback from participants indicated that they were very pleased with both the content and how smoothly the format went. Participants will be expected to have a basic proficiency in Zoom and a device with both a camera and a microphone to log into Zoom.

Tuition

Tuition is $695 when paid by: July 10 for the August 3-7 Institute; August 7 for the August 31-September 4 Institute; September 4 for the October 5-9 Institute; October 16 for the November 16-20 Institute; or $895 after those dates. Participants will receive training manual and materials via the postal service soon after the preregistration deadline.

Cancellations are subject to a $100 non-refundable fee if LMPC is notified prior to mailing the training materials, or half of the registration fee afterward. To register, fill out the attached registration form and mail it with a check payable to LMPC, or register online at <https://www.brownpapertickets.com/producer/720852>.

Trainers

The Lombard Mennonite Peace Center is grounded in an Anabaptist peacebuilding model of conflict transformation, placed within the context of family systems theory. LMPC seeks to equip others to be ministers of reconciliation in their daily life and church communities. LMPC trainers, Rev. Richard Blackburn and Rev. Jay Wittmeyer, bring to the institute many years of practical experience of mediating conflict in churches and organizations, while also training others to be self-differentiated leaders in the midst of congregational anxieties. Since 1983, LMPC has been leading the way in helping the church see conflict as an arena for God's revelation, while fulfilling the mission of helping Christ's church grow in health and wholeness.

Everyone Has to Deal with Conflict

Conflict is normal and inevitable – whether in the home, school, community, church or workplace. Leaders in all walks of life often have a responsibility to help others work through their conflicts.

The Mediation Skills Training Institute presented by the Lombard Mennonite Peace Center (LMPC) is designed to equip church leaders with the skills necessary to deal effectively with interpersonal, congregational, and other forms of group conflict. The five-day institute also includes a component on congregational mediation and consultation, placed within the context of family systems theory.

Although focused primarily on the church setting, the skills learned are directly transferable to other settings. Thus, managers in business, attorneys, experienced mediators, and others in leadership will be enriched by the training as well.

Who Will Benefit

- ◆ PASTORS and INTERIM PASTORS of all denominations — to enhance skills for managing conflict in the church.
- ◆ JUDICATORY LEADERS — Bishops; Conference Ministers; District Superintendents; Diocesan, Presbytery, Synod Staff – to assist pastors and congregations in handling conflicts.
- ◆ DENOMINATIONAL OFFICIALS and CHURCH CONSULTANTS — to bring healing in the midst of divisive church fights.
- ◆ LAY LEADERS and PASTOR-PARISH COMMITTEE MEMBERS — to receive valuable leadership training to benefit the church, while also gaining insight for peaceful conflict transformation in the home.
- ◆ ADMINISTRATORS — to introduce conflict transformation to the organizations they oversee.
- ◆ MANAGERS and SUPERVISORS — to help workers diminish conflict and enhance productivity.
- ◆ COLLEGE and SEMINARY STUDENTS — to gain hands-on skills training not typically offered in regular classes.
- ◆ ATTORNEYS — to gain skills in alternative dispute resolution procedures.
- ◆ COMMUNITY MEDIATION CENTER STAFF and VOLUNTEERS — to acquire additional skills in a transformational model of mediation for working with both individuals and groups.

“All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation.” - 2 Corinthians 5:18
