

Mediation Skills Training Institute

This 5-day event is designed to equip church leaders with the knowledge and skills necessary to deal effectively with interpersonal, congregational, and other forms of group conflict. It also includes a component on congregational mediation and consultation, placed within the context of family systems theory. Although focused primarily on the church setting, the skills learned are directly transferable to other settings, including the business and academic worlds. Join us and find out for yourself why a previous participant described MSTI as "The best and most thorough model for mediation with individuals and congregations that I have experienced in more than three decades of ordained ministry"!

This Workshop Will Help You...

- Learn how to navigate conflict through practicing role playing exercises during the institute
- Understand the role of personal positionality in a conflict
- Learn interpersonal peacemaking skills
- Understand your own response to conflict
- Learn the different stages in mediation
- Apply Bowen Family Systems Theory as a way to understand church conflict

Who Will Benefit:

- Pastors and interim pastors of all denominations
- Judiciary leaders in assisting pastors and congregations in handling conflicts
- College and seminary students as a way to gain practical as well as theoretical skills in conflict management
- Community mediators who wish to gain more skills in the transformational model of mediation work
- Attorneys interested in learning alternative dispute resolution procedures

Hosted By Jay Wittmeyer

Rev. Jay Wittmeyer is the Executive Director of the Lombard Mennonite Peace Center. Jay is an educator, organizational development consultant, and mediator with broad experience, serving conflicted churches and organizations in the U.S. and international settings. Grounded in an Anabaptist peace-building tradition and working from a Bowen family systems perspective, LMPC works to transform conflict in a healthy manner.
