

Leadership Development Through Family Systems

Leaders today face many challenges. In this time of increased anxiety and stress, we need leaders who focus on their own integrity, functioning, and the nature of their presence rather than look for quick-fix solutions or fancy techniques. Participants in this program will be challenged to invest in their own emotional maturity and functioning as a way to enhance their sense of calm and differentiation of self. Participants will have the opportunity to build a cohort of like-minded leaders facing similar journeys and challenges. Sign up today to experience the life change for yourself!

This Workshop Will Help You...

- Enhance your effectiveness as a Pastor – from a 2022-2023 Graduate
- Apply learnings from Family Systems
- Better manage self
- Chart your own family of origin and understand how your family is connected
- Better understand your own emotional reactivity so you can learn to shift your response when necessary

Who Will Benefit:

- Pastors and Interim Pastors.
- Judicatory Officials: Bishops, District Superintendents, Presbytery Executives, etc.
- Church Consultants.
- Leaders of Religious Communities and Other Church-Related Organizations.
- Congregational lay leaders are welcome as well.

Logistical Information:

- LMPC is responsible for hosting the workshop itself. It is the responsibility of the attendee to find and book accommodation, transportation, and meals.
 - The LMPC will provide a list of hotels in the area that will be sent out prior to the workshop.
- Meetings take place three times per year, with each meeting time lasting three successive days

Hosted By

Jay Wittmeyer

Rev. Jay Wittmeyer is the Executive Director of the Lombard Mennonite Peace Center. Jay is an educator, organizational development consultant, and mediator with broad experience, serving conflicted churches and organizations in the U.S. and international settings. Grounded in an Anabaptist peace-building tradition and working from a Bowen family systems perspective, LMPC works to transform conflict in a healthy manner.

Tammy Martens

Rev. Tammy Martens has served in campus ministry and church ministry for over 30 years. She currently serves as Associate Pastor at Orchard Ridge UCC in Madison, WI. She has been involved in Clergy Clinic in Family Emotional Process for ten years. Learning and applying Family Systems Theory to her life has brought positive change in her relationships with her family and in how she works in ministry. Tammy is married to Rob, and they have two adult children, Gabe and Lily.
